Welcome Home: Crye-Leike, Realtors Celebrate Opening of New Midtown Memphis Office

Press Release Written & Photographed for Crye-Leike, REALTORS®
Published on February 24, 2015

Crye-Leike, REALTORS® is excited to announce the ribbon cutting celebration for Crye-Leike Realtors Midtown office at 1715 Union Avenue. Managing Broker Carol Lott and her associates are excited to be assisting buyers and sellers in the midtown and downtown areas of Memphis.

"I am honored to have been chosen as Broker of the Midtown Office," said Lott. "Crye-Leike is an outstanding organization with some of the most accomplished realtors in the business. The leadership team is comprised of many past local state and association presidents, committee chairs and recognized leaders in the community. I am proud to be part of the Crye-Leike family."

Lott has practiced real estate for nearly thirty years. With this expansion Lott looks forward to using her experience to the sales force with new and experienced agents. Personal interviews are being conducted to talk with those who are interested in excelling in the real estate industry.

Carol is currently serving as the 2015 Director for the National Association of REALTORS® and has won several awards for her work in real estate including the REALTOR® of the Year award in 2013 from the Memphis Area Association of REALTORS®.

Co-founders Harold Crye and Dick Leike were also in attendance at Crye-Leike Midtown's ribbon cutting ceremony to dedicate the new office and promote Crye-Leike's award-winning services to the midtown community.

"Over the last 37 years, we've enjoyed success in the state of Tennessee by achieving the distinction of being the #1 real estate company in the state in sales," said Co-Founder and CEO Harold Crye. "With the addition of our new Midtown branch office, Crye-Leike is on track to meet several of the goals we set for the company this year."
